COLUMBIAN TALKS.

An Appeal to Texas Friends for Help—Eight Years a Long Term.

Dallas Special to the Chicago Times: Cole Younger, the Missouri, Texas and Minnesota cattle thief, is serving the sentence in the penitentiary of the latter state, at Stillwater, in hard work in an effort to secure a pardon and release. He came to Dallas shortly after the close of the war, and lived several years, gaining the acquaintance and goodwill of many of the old citizens. For a time he taught Sunday school at St. Anne's, in the city, and was subsequently employed on the police force of this city. He writes a letter to the Chicago Times, in which he says that he came to the relief of himself and brother Jim by using their influence, and asking, saying: "Should we ever be released, I assure that I will not be. I will be in the penitentiary for the rest of my life. I will be in the penitentiary for the rest of my life. I will be in the penitentiary for the rest of my life."

CUBA.

A Few Facts About Our Near Southern Neighbor—The Products and People of the Queen of the Antilles—Our Trade with the Interesting Island.

Cuba, our near southern neighbor, writes a Washington correspondent of the Cleveland Herald, is at present of greater importance to the United States than any other province, our commercial relations with which are affected by the new Spanish treaty. Our business with Cuba is nearly twice as large—including exports and imports—as with Spain and her other dependencies together. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1884, the total of our imports from Spain and all dependencies was $28,732,676, and of our exports to those countries $24,908,482, making an aggregate of $53,641,158. Our trade with Cuba, however, was $27,181,497, exports $10,552,822, and imports $16,628,675, leaving but $3,896,781 for all other Spanish countries.

Cuba is nearly 800 miles long, and 120 miles wide. It contains 45,883 square miles, its area being one-eighth greater than that of Ohio, and one-fifth less than that of Texas. The climate, tempered by the sea, which surrounds it, is very salubrious. The temperature is rarely higher than 80 degrees or lower than 60. It has a mild, healthy climate, and is one of the best places in the world to live in. The population is 1,521,681, of whom about 851,000 are males and 671,000 females. Nearly 1,000,000 of the people are negroes, and the remainder comprise 490,000 colored, 47,000 Chinese, and but 11,000 white foreigners, of whom not more than 5,000 are Americans. A surprisingly small number consider the country the United States and the United States.

A movement was recently set on foot to promote the sale of Cuban sugar in Europe, which has been partially successful, and the white foreign population is said to be on the increase. The railroad system of the island is 2,835 miles of track.

Our imports from Cuba are large, but our exports to it fall far short of what they should be, and would under the present tariff be increased by sixths of all that the people produce, but they buy more than from us. A recent report of the United States consul at Havana, says that the United States exports to Cuba during the last four years "American tonnage continues to decrease and English tonnage to increase, and the balance of trade is in our favor."

People living along the shores of Lake Ontario, in Wayne and Genesee counties, state that this has been the case for many years. neers are already starting out to look over the proposed routes. This means a new life to all this region.
The boundless resources of these northern prairies and forests will be developed and an era of prosperity to this section and its inhabitants will be inaugurated.

They Need a Boss.
The Duluth Herald says what that city needs in a political sense is a man who can do for it what Sabin does for Stillwater, Gilman for St. Cloud and Kindred for Brainerd—in other words a political boss.

Not Probable.
The Duluth Tribune in speaking of the bonds to bolster up the D.
& W. railroad says:
"The question of the county raising $100,000 by giving bonds at 6 per cent for the purpose of building the Duluth & Winnipeg road, is being agitated by some of our citizens. It is not probable that this will be done. The county has about all it can attend to in this direction at present. Nothing can be done in this matter, anyway, without action of the state legislature, which will take two years.
The county commissioners interviewed on the matter so far are not in favor of it."

A Pioneer in Fact As Well As in Name.
The March number of The Northwestern magazine gives some interesting facts in connection with the growth and progress of the PIONEER PRESS. It says:
"The Pioneer Press establishment is more than a private enterprise—it is an institution which has always been closely identified with every phase of the rapidly developing civilization of which it was in fact as well as in name, the pioneer."

THE PIONEER PRESS is a NEWSPAPER stands forth as a striking illustration of the growth and prosperity, not alone of the cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis, but of the empire of states and territories of which these cities are the center and type.
With the first dawn of political life in the Northwest in 1849, the St.
Paul Weekly Pioneer made its appearance, its founder being the famous James M. Goodhue, and from that germ has grown and blossomed the Pioneer Press of to-day. The Old journals have come and gone in endless procession, and their very names are almost forgotten, but the Pioneer Press has continued its resistless march.

"The Pioneer Press traces its lineage from the Pioneer, established April 28, 1849, and from the St. Paul Press, founded on the first of January, 1851. The Pioneer displayed a snap and vigor that soon enabled it to outshine and absorb all its Democratic rivals, and it grew into a strong and self-sustaining journal. The St.
Paul Press, in turn, absorbed the Republican papers that preceded it, and this paper, under the management of the present proprietors of the Pioneer Press soon commenced that career of marvelous prosperity which is scarcely paralleled in the history of journalism. For about twenty-three years it has never ceased to grow in stature and strength, not a single year has passed that has not shown a circulation and a volume of business greater than that of the year preceding. There has been no pause in its development, and at no time has it ever taken a step backward.

In 1870 the Pioneer was taken into the embrace of the Press, the consolidated paper being the Pioneer Press, and from that time to the present, as its readers will cheerfully testify, the only changes in its character and personnel have been in the direction of improvement and enlargement as rapidly as means and opportunities presented themselves for meeting the increasing wants of its widening circle of patrons. . . .
The Pioneer Press is regularly sold by train agents upon the more than 16,000 miles of the eighteen lines of railroad which are under tribute to the locality of its publication. . . .
Four hundred and fifty local news agents sell the Pioneer Press at cities and villages on all these lines, and it also has a large subscription list supplied by mail direct. It is one of not more than four newspapers in the United States, publishing every day, in its own columns, sworn statements of its circulation.

"The paper is printed from stereotype plates, upon Hoe perfecting press, which is a marvel of mechanical ingenuity, with a capacity of 12,000 sheets per hour, even sheet being cut from a continuous roll of paper, and coming from the press printed and folded, ready for delivery."

Increased Capital.

The St. Paul, Brainerd & Northwestern Railroad company filed amended articles of incorporation with the secretary of state Saturday. To the articles describing the route (St. Paul, via Princeton and Brainerd to the Red River in Polk or Marshall county) is added a provision styling the portion between St. Paul and Brainerd the southern division, and the remainder the Northern division, and providing that the different divisions shall be built in the order in which the directors may determine. The capital is increased from $3,750,- 000 to $6,000,000 and the limit of liability similarly increased to $6,- 000,000 for construction bonds, $2,- 000,000 for equipment bonds, and $1,000,000 exclusive of bonded indebtedness. There are 60,000 $100 shares. C. F. Kindred, J. R.
Howes and G. S. Canfield were added to the incorporators.

Duluth & Winnipeg.

Ex-Senator James Hill of Wisconsin, who managed the interests of the Duluth & Winnipeg during the late session of the legislature, is in St. Paul. Speaking yesterday of the future prospects of the road, he said he recognized that a serious blow had been struck against the road by the transfer to the St. Paul Brainerd & Northwestern of its land grant; but he, for one, was in favor of coming on and making a strenuous effort to build the line in the three years yet remaining to earn the grant. He smiled when told of Duluth's talk of an issue of bonds to complete the road, and said he knew nothing of the cut throat contest between Duluth and Grand Forks and did not even know of the railroad meeting at the latter place on Monday. He goes to New York to-night to see what he can do to put the Duluth & Winnipeg enterprise on its feet.

"ROYAL" THE ONLY ABSOLUTELY
PURE BAKING POWDER MADE—
ACTION OF THE NEW YORK STATE
BOARD OF HEALTH.

Under the direction of the New York State Board of Health eighty-four different kinds of baking powders, embracing all the brands that could be found for sale in the State, were submitted to examination and analysis by Prof. C. F.
Chandler, a member of the State Board of Health, assisted by Prof.
Edward G. Love, the well known late United States chemist.

The official report shows that a large number of the powders examined were found to contain alum or lime; many of them to such an extent as to render them seriously objectionable for use in the preparation of human food.

Alum was found in twenty-nine samples. This drug is employed in baking powders to cheapen their cost. The presence of lime is attributed to the impure cream of tartar of commerce used in their manufacture. Such cream of tartar was also analyzed and found to contain lime and other impurities in some samples to the extent of 93 per cent of their entire weight.

All the baking powders of the market, with the single exception of "Royal" (not including the alum and phosphate powders, which were long since discarded as unsafe or inefficient by prudent housekeepers) are made from the impure cream of tartar of commerce and consequently contain lime to a corresponding extent.

The only baking powder yet found by chemical analysis to be entirely free from lime and phosphate is the "Royal." This perfect purity results from the exclusive use of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent processes of the N. Y.
Tarter Co., which totally removes the tartrate of lime and other impurities. The product is therefore chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and on account of this greater cost is used in no baking powder but the "Royal."

Prof. Love, who made the analyses of baking powders for the New York State Board of Health, as well as for the government, says of the purity and wholesomeness of "Royal."
"I have tested a package of
"Royal Baking Powder" which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is entirely free from lime and phosphate, and of high degree of merit and does not contain either alum or phosphates or any injurious substances."

NEWS OF THE WEEK SUMMARIZED.

There are ninety different styles of collars in use by gentlemen in this country.

The South Carolina supreme court has decided that no insolvent person can give any preference.

It is said that Mr. John C. Eno intends to build a large hotel on the island of Orleans, a few miles from Quebec.

It is rumored that Gov. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, will enter the Methodist Episcopal ministry at the close of his term of office.

An ex-pitcher of the Mutual Club of Jackson, Mich., away back in the fifties, is now a judge of the supreme court in that state.

SENATOR J. N. DOLPH, of Oregon, has a residence in Portland which cost him $750,000. He is a large holder of Northern Pacific bonds.

Mrs. HARRIET SMITH, of Tuckers-ville, Fla., has proved that women have a soul above the fashions. She is making money by running a large saloon.

LIVERPOOL has been presented with a marble bust of Mr. Gladstone, "because," as the donor says, "the premier is one of Liverpool's most illustrious sons."

JOHN W. ROCKWELL, the Ohio millionaire, free-trader, and manufacturer, is reported to have purchased a villa on the Mediterranean sea, where he will devote himself to literature and art.

"The Buffalo Commercial" remarks:
"The town of Charleston, W. V., is the only American city paved with bricks in the middle of the streets, brick-paved, and the sidewalks are paved with stone. They last well, and are known 200 years in Holland."

PETROLEUM as a fuel has been experimented with for several days past on a freight-barge at Oakland, Cal.
The experiments thus far have been con-tinuingly successful, and the steam producing properties of the fuel satisfactorily demonstrated. Several economic questions in relation to its use, however, remain to be decided.

NICHOLAS VAN HORN, a well-to-do farmer and widower, of Ilberham, Ga., and the father of two children over 30 years of age, was married recently to Miss Ivy, a child of 12. During the ceremony the child began to sob, when the old man patted her on the head in a fatherly manner, and wiped away her tears with his big bandana.

In cutting a tunnel of the Oregon Short-Line railway, in Wyoming territory, four coal veins were struck, the thickest of which was twenty feet thick. The coal burns to a white ash, is a good steaming coal, but possibly, the defect of slaking badly upon to the air. In mining, although it is waste, because of this disposition to slake and crumble.

JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL, United States minister to England, was asked recently, by a New Orleans exposition exhibitor, for his autograph, and asked to write it upon a piece of silk which was furnished. The ink on the silk dried badly, and, returning it, Mr.
Lowell got off the following: "I suppose an author might be glad to have his name written on silk, but in this case I have vainly tried to prevent it."

A new horseshoe is now being made, which is in two parts, the upper part designed to remain permanently upon the hoof, and the lower part, which is of indefinite time, as no wear comes upon it; the other, that which contains the corks, and which is joined to the upper in an ingenious manner. The lower halves of the shoes are interchangeable —sharp corks for icy weather and dull ones for heavy draft horses, or they may be removed entirely at night to prevent injury to the animal while in the stall.

It is reported that the village system among the Metchuns, in the northeast, of the island of Japan, is a considerable extent broken up in the coming spring. Of the thirty families now in Schenfeldt, all except about a dozen will take up residence on their several farms, removing their buildings, which are of logs, from the village. Two smaller villages in the same section of country are to be entirely broken up. Various circumstances have contributed to this result, financial difficulties being one of the chief causes.

The San Franciscans are proud of what they term their Golden Gate park, which is over a thousand acres. Of all the great parks in the world, it is said that there is none so picturesque and none having so many resources of arboriculture. Nearly all semi-tropical trees will thrive in it. For ten years the work of tree planting has been going on, and the park is rapidly becoming a most attractive spot. One of the best features of the place is the ocean view, the park being located on the shore of the bay, with a driveway along the beach.

The largest hanging bell in the world is in a Buddhist monastery, near Chang-chun, China. It is eighteen feet high, and forty-five feet in circumfer-ence, and is of solid bronze. It is one of eight great bells which were cast by command of the Emperor Yung-loast about A. D. 1400, and is said to have cost the lives of eight men, who were killed during the process of casting. The whole bell, inside and out, is covered with an inscription in embossed Chinese characters.

Brainerd Dispatch.

Issued every Thursday morning at Brainerd, Minn. Terms $1.50 per year in ADVANCE.
N. H. Ingersoll, Editors and Proprietors.
F. W. Wieland.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF CROW WING, CASS, and Itasca counties.
Entered at the Post Office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

They blow up roller rinks in Pennsylvania with dynamite.

Vote for the bonds and thereby secure to Brainerd and Crow Wing county an institution that will bring within its bounds thousands of dollars of capital.

The St. Paul Dispatch is now a 2-cent paper, and the news boys kick because of the reduction.
The Dispatch is a spicy paper now and the public will have it if they have to walk four blocks to the counting-room to procure it.

Since the building of the new railroad from St. Paul to Brainerd and on to Grand Forks seems assured, there is strong expectation that it will be continued on to the Turtle mountains and meet, a branch of the Canadian Pacific there.—Globe.

Hubbard County Enterprise: If one seems to be certain, it is that the Brainerd & Northern Railroad will be built this summer. Engineers are already starting out to look
be developed and an era of prosper-
tants will be inaugurated.

They Need a Boss.

Brainerd—in other words a political boss.

Not Probable.

of the bonds to bolster up the D.
& W. railroad says:
$100,000 by giving bonds at 6 per cent for the purpose of building the Duluth & Winnipeg road, is being agitated by some of our citizens. It is not probable that this will be done. The county has
direction at present. Nothing can
be done in this matter, anyway, without action of the state legislature, which will take two years.
in favor of it.

A Pioneer in Fact As Well As In Name.

The March number of The Northwest magazine gives some interesting facts in connection
with the growth and progress of
the PIONEER PRESS. It says:
the pioneer."

St. Paul and Minneapolis, but of
tories in which these cities are the center and type.
in the Northwest in 1849, the St.
Paul Weekly Pioneer made its appearance, its founder being the famous James M. Goodhue, and from that germ has grown and blossomed the Pioneer Press of to-day.
Other journals have come and gone in endless procession, and their very names are almost forgotten, but the Pioneer Press has continued its resistless march.

lineage from the Pioneer, estab-
the St. Paul Press, founded on the first of January, 1851. The Pion-
and absorb all its Democratic rivals, and it grew into a strong and
self-sustaining journal. The St.
Republican papers that preceded it, and this paper, under the management of the present proprietors of the Pioneer Press soon commenced that career of marvelous prosper-
ceding. There has been no pause

into the embrace of the Press, the
been in the direction of improve-
circle of patrons."

The Pioneer Press is regularly sold by train agents upon the more than 16,000 miles of the eighteen lines of railroad which are directly tributary to the locality of its publication. Moved from the city and fifty local news agents sell the Pion-
its circulation.

press, which is a marvel of mechanical ingenuity, with a capacity of 12,000 sheets per hour, every
delivery."

Increased Capital.

and Brainerd to the Red River in
a provision styling the portion be-
southern division, and the remainder the Northern division, and pro-
liability similarly increased to $6,- 000,000 for construction bonds, $2,- 000,000 for equipment bonds, and
$1,000,000 exclusive of bonded in-
shares. C. F. Kindred, J. R.
added to the incorporators.

Duluth & Winnipeg.

the late session of the legislature,
of the future prospects of the road,
Brainerd & Northwestern of its land grant; but he, for one, was in favor of going on and making a strenuous effort to build the line in
told of Duluth's talk of an issue of bonds to complete the road, and said he knew nothing of the cut throat contest between Crookston and Grand Forks, and did not even know of the railroad meeting at the latter place on Monday. He goes to New York to-night to see
& Winnipeg enterprise on its feet.

York State Board of Health eight-four different kinds of baking pow-
State, were submitted to examination and analysis by Prof. C. F.
Board of Health, assisted by Prof.
late United States chemist.

the preparation of human food.

entire weight.

market, with the single exception of "Royal" (not including the
lime to a corresponding extent.

The official baking powder yet found by chemical analysis to be entirely free from lime and absolutely pure is the "Royal." This perfect purity results from the
patent processes of the N. Y.
Carter Co., which totally removes the tartaric acid of lime and other impurities. The cost of this chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and
the "Royal."

Prof. Love, who made the analyses of baking powders for the
as well as for the government,
of "Royal."
"I have tested a package of
wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of high degree of merit and does not contain either alum or phosphates
